

ANGELA GUITAR

Head of Global Excess Casualty Claims, AXA XL

Working out of the New York office, Angela is head of AXA XL's Global Excess Casualty Claims department. In addition to being responsible for the management of the Excess Casualty Claims department, she also supervises a claims staff of eight claim professionals handling Excess Casualty Claims, prepares reports for senior claims and underwriting management, provides settlement authority for handlers and attends complex claim mediations.

Angela has more than 20 years of insurance industry experience. She started her career at The Prudential Insurance Company of America as a Consultant. She's held numerous positions at AIG and prior to joining AXA XL in March 2015 she was a Vice President Claims Specialist at Travelers Insurance Company in their Excess Casualty Claims department.

Angela graduated from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law with her Juris Doctor Degree. She also attended Walsh University and obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and International Relations with a minor in French.
